VOLUNTEER STATE BANK ESTABLISHES GOODLETTSVILLE ADVISORY BOARD

GOODLETTSVILLE, Tenn. Feb. 21, 2008 – Officials with Volunteer State Bank recently announced the formation of a Goodlettsville Advisory Board made up of local business and community leaders. The board’s first meeting was held in the new VSB branch located at 405 Long Hollow Pike. The branch is scheduled to open at the end of February.

“We’re dedicated to smart, targeted growth at Volunteer State Bank,” said Matt Ricker, Volunteer State Bank president. “Our Goodlettsville customers will certainly be better served at this location, but more importantly, the bank will be of greater service to the community.”

- Ben Bratcher, an attorney with Haynes & Freeman
- Dr. Terry Chamberlain, a local dentist
- Larry and Susan Hanson, Fatback Music Productions & Studio
- Ken Parkhurst, CFO, Kirby Building Systems
- Bob Shaw, general contractor, McPherson-Shaw, Inc.
- Tommy Swint, Mack Pest Control, Inc.
- John White, owner, LOGI Warehouse & Transportation
- Allyson Woosley, realtor, Century 21 Premier

The board will meet quarterly to discuss issues involving the bank and the community. Bank officials will share information with the board about upcoming promotions and offers, as well as plans for expansion and development.

“We have always had a great deal of support in Goodlettsville,” said Bill Seals, senior vice president of the Goodlettsville branch. “This board represents and opportunity to open up new lines of communication between the bank and the people who are really in touch with the business environment in Goodlettsville.”

Bank officials said this is the third advisory board established by the bank and they hope to bring it to other cities this year. Board members will serve a one-year term.

Chartered in 1977 in Portland, Volunteer State Bank is a fast growing community bank in Middle Tennessee with offices in Sumner and Robertson counties. The bank has eight locations in Portland, Gallatin, Hendersonville, Springfield, Orlinda, White House and Goodlettsville. Volunteer State continues to expand its products through its subsidiaries, Guaranty Trust Company and Middle Tennessee Insurance Agency.
